Your opportunity to contribute significantly to standards of care for donors, recipients and their families.

- ◆ Education to heighten public awareness of the issues surrounding organ donation and transplantation and to increase the knowledge and skills of health professionals involved in the transplant process.
- Participation in policy decisions in relation to transplantation for all health professionals specialising in this field.
- ◆ Networking with health professionals locally and globally in the areas of bone marrow, heart and lung, kidney, pancreas, liver and tissue transplantation.
- ★ The TNA Annual Conference is held on a rotational basis between states, with members invited to present papers or other material for discussion.
- → Meetings are held quarterly by each state branch and feature guest speakers, with supper provided.
- ◆ The Transplant Journal of Australasia is published triannually and provides a forum for enquiry into ethics, advances in transplantation, nursing research, patient outcomes and issues of interest to health professionals in this field. Of international standing and listed with EBSCO, Informit and CINAHL, the TJA is researched and produced by TNA members.
- ★ The TNA website at www.tna.asn.au provides up-to-date information on the Association's activities, including the Annual Conference, the TNA state branch meetings, membership and lots more.
- ♦ Funding can be provided for relevant educational endeavours.
